

CONTENTS

Dedication

Acknowledgements

1 Introduction

PART I - THE GENEALOGY OF WESTERN COURTESY AND CIVILITY

2 From Barbarism to Medieval Courtly Manners

- Introduction
- Rationalizing Christianity in a Violent Era:
- The New Culture of Restraint
- From Violence to Righteous Anger
- The Ethic of Nobility and the Coming of Age of the Knight
- Courtly Love and Transcendental Devotion

3 The Renaissance and the New Secular Civility

- Introduction
- Humanism, Aesthetics and Individuation
- The Art and Pragmatics of Deference
- Seminal Conduct Themes and Books of the Renaissance
 - Balancing Desire and Communal Survival - The Prince
 - Balancing Courtesy and Integrity - The Book of the Courtier
 - Balancing Religious Creed and Personal Judgment – The Colloquies
 - Manners for All Seasons: The Galateo
- The New Citizenship and the Raising of the Shame Threshold

4 Protestantism and the Enlightenment: Shifts in Identity and Self-Awareness

- Protestantism, Identity and the Contingency of Personal Worth
- The Enlightenment and the Civility of Tolerance

5 French Court Society, the French Revolution and the Paradoxes of French Civility

- The Impasse Between Divine Rights and Civic Liberty
- Etiquette, Délicatesse and the Politics of Status and Refinement
- From Etiquette to Civility: The Art of Conversing
- Salon Culture: The New Bastion of Distinction

- Post-Revolutionary Affirmation of French Culture: Reconciling Sentimentalism, Reason and Style
 - The Ascension of Bourgeois Morality and Sentimentality
 - French Café Culture and Public Interaction
 - Authority and Liberty: The Legacy of Napoleonic France
- 6 England and the Victorian Ethic: Reconciling Morality and Etiquette
- Harmonizing Monarchy and Liberty
 - Early English Courtesy Literature
 - From Regency to Victorian Morality
 - Reconciling Morality and Etiquette
 - The Polite and Considerate Individual
 - From 18th Century Sentimentality to Victorian Romanticism
 - Self-Help: The Importance of Being Earnest
 - The Dangers of Impropriety: Romanticizing Sexuality and Family Life
- 7 The American Experience: Democracy and Informal Civility
- The Founding Standard: America as a Manifest Destiny
 - American Conduct, Etiquette and Action-Oriented Individualism
 - Children's Conduct Books
 - Men's Conduct Books
 - Women's Conduct Books
 - Being at Ease: The New American Civility
 - Reflections on the Meanings and Consequences of a Civility of 'Ease'
 - Summary: Comparing the Cultural History of American, English and French Civility

PART II – THEORIZING CIVILITY

- 8 The Rise of the Oppositional Self and the New Therapeutic Society
- Loss of Heart and the New Critical Civility
 - Corporate Culture and American Consensual Optimism
 - The Cultural Revolution of the 1960's and its Effects on Civility
 - Shifts in Social Philosophy
 - The New Therapeutic Society
 - The Freeing of the Expressive Body
 - Therapeutic Romance and Civility
 - Therapeutic Parenting and Civility
 - The Risks and Opportunities of a Culture of Personal Entitlement

Organizations, Civility and the Dilemmas of the Corporate Worker

- 9 Socialization, Restraint and Civilization
- Towards an Emotionally Informed Sociology
 - Norbert Elias' Theory of Restraint and the Civilizing Process
 - The Social Construction of Civil Identity.
- 10 Social and Emotional Components of Civil Interaction: Towards A Topology of Civility
- The Cross-Cultural Dimension
 - Time, Context and Space
 - The Various Faces of Civility: Politeness Theory
 - Guilt and Personal Liberty
 - The Emotional and Ideological Nature of Embarrassment and Shame
 - Social Bonds, Alienation and Civility
- 11 A Framework for Civility Research
- 12 A Comparison of Contemporary American, French and English Civility
- State Systems and Social Relations
 - Family and Child-Rearing
 - The Notion of Self and Self-Esteem
 - Education
 - Conversation
 - Friendship
 - Courtship
 - Work Ethic
 - State Bureaucracy and Citizenship
 - Civility, Embarrassment, and Shame in Cross-Cultural Context
- 13 The Future of Civility
- Bibliography*